

HOMELESS NYC

ARTISTS:

ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL ESTIMATES THERE ARE 60,000 HOMELESS MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN NEW YORK CITY. THESE HUMAN BEINGS NEED FOOD, DECENT HOMES, HEALTH CARE AND JOBS.

AS WINTER APPROACHES HELP BRING ATTENTION TO THIS SOCIAL CRISIS BY CREATING A STENCIL WHICH GETS THE MESSAGE ACROSS: ON THE STREETS OF MANHATTAN AND ON THE WALLS OF THE STOREFRONT FOR ART AND ARCHITECTURE.

This exhibition is presented by Carlo McCormick, Robert Costa, Carla Davis, Shirin Neshat and Barbara Yoshida in conjunction with "Homeless At Home: A Public Project"

© 1983 Kim Hopper All Rights Reserved

HOME FOR EVERYONE

INFORMATION:

- * Exhibition Dates: Oct. 12-Nov. 2
Opening: Oct. 12, 7-10 p.m.
- * Stencils must address the issue of home and homelessness
- * For a consistent citywide message include "Home For Everyone" in your stencil design—specifications available at STOREFRONT.
- * Stencil the streets minimum 20 times during the month of October
- * Stencil at STOREFRONT on Oct. 10 and 11, 5-10 p.m. and Oct. 12, 12-5 p.m.
- * Closing party at 8BC Nov. 3, 8 p.m. Performance by Penelope Wehrli and Laurie Perricci
- * Sign up now:
STOREFRONT
ART AND ARCHITECTURE
51 PRINCE ST.
(BETWEEN MULBERRY & LAFAYETTE STS)
WED.-SUN. 1-6 P.M. (212) 431-5795
- * For further information attend meeting Sept. 29 or 30, 7 p.m. at STOREFRONT.

STOREFRONT

51 Prince St, New York, NY 10012

Art and Architecture

Kyong Park/Glenn Weiss 212.431.5795